<h1>History of Immigration & Emigration and Citizenship of Sri Lanka</h1>
<h2>Immigration & Emigration before Independence</h2>
To be the best immigration service in the region

During the period when Ceylon was a British colony, entry into and exit from Sri Lanka (then Ceylon) was controlled by the following ordinances:

<ul>
    <li>Emigration of Indians from Ceylon Ordinance no 3 of 1847</li>
    <li>Foreign Recruiting Ordinance no 01 of 1874</li>
    <li>Ceylon emigrants Ordinance no 04 of 1882</li>
    <li>Destitute Immigrants Ordinance no 12 of 1907</li>
    <li>Emigration Ordinance no 22 of 1917</li>
    <li>Passport Ordinance no 20 of 1923</li>
    <li>Aliens Registration Ordinance no 30 of 1935</li>
    <li>Indian Criminal Tribes Immigration Ordinance no 19 of 1939</li>
</ul>

Emigration of Indians from Ceylon Ordinance 1847 has been enacted to, prohibit natives of India from, entering into contracts in Ceylon, for labor to be performed in any British or foreign colony beyond the limits of India or Ceylon, and from emigrating, from Ceylon to any such colony, for the purpose of employment as laborers.  Foreign Recruiting Ordinance 1874 was enacted to, control recruiting in Ceylon, for the service of foreign states. BY this law, governor was authorized to, prohibit recruiting persons, for service of foreign states beyond the limits of Ceylon; or permit to do so subject to conditions.  Ceylon Emigrants Ordinance 1882 was enacted to; regulate the emigration of Ceylonese laborers from, Ceylon under contract of service. By this law, governor was empowered to, declare places where Ceylonese laborers were allowed to, emigrate. It was subject to the condition that such contracts should be signed before a magistrate. Destitute Immigrants Ordinance 1907 was enacted to, restrict immigration into Ceylon of destitute, and vicious persons, and of stowaways. The main objective of this law was, preventing the entry of persons, who would be a liability to the Treasury. By this law a person other than a native of Ceylon or native of British India, who was unable, by reason of physical or mental infirmity, to maintain himself by his own labor, or is destitute, was not permitted to land. Entry of such a person was permitted only on a bond entered into by a local to the effect that he would repay to the financial secretary any cost and charges, may be incurred in respect of such destitute immigrant. The entry into Ceylon of any prostitute or any person living on the prostitution, too was prohibited by this law.

Emigration ordinance 1917 was enacted to regulate the emigration of persons from Ceylon for the purpose of employment in certain capacities outside the island. In this law emigrant was defined as a native person living in Ceylon and Indian emigrant was defined as a native person of India, other than a person who has obtained a pass under any law in force in British India regulating the issue of passes to Indian emigrants. Provision was made in this law to, both emigrants and Indian emigrants to obtain the consent of chief secretary in writing for embarkation. Only the persons who were over seventeen years of age were granted with consent. They were required to obtain a pass from the collector of customs and enter into a bond with the crown. Further they had to keep a deposit of three hundred rupees with the collector of customs. The persons who were emigrating for employment purposes had to sign a service contract with their employer, and it should have been attested by the controller of customs. In addition to that, there were several provisions, regards to the responsibilities of masters of ships, powers of police officers to search and arrest, and medical examinations at the port,

and penalties.

Passport Ordinance 1923 was enacted to make provision to take power to require passports of persons entering or departing from Ceylon. The governor was granted with powers to make regulations requiring that persons entering or departing from Ceylon should be on possession of passports, and matters related to that purpose. Further, he was empowered, to exempt of any person or class of persons from any provision of such regulations. The regulations made under this law were effected up to October 28 of 1949, until the new immigration and emigration regulations make under the immigrants and emigrants act no 20 of 1948, came into effect. Aliens' Registration Ordinance 1935 was enacted to make provision for the registration of aliens (a person other than a British subject or British protected person) in Ceylon.

The registrar of aliens was appointed by the governor under the provision of this law. By this law, any alien who was intending to remain in the island for a period of one month or longer was ordered to furnish a return to the registrar. Further there was provision regards to the, restrictions of movements within the island, deportation of aliens, and verification of returns.

So it was something similar to the visa requirements of present day.

Indian criminal tribes immigration ordinance no.19 of 1939

This ordinance was enacted by state council, and assented by his majesty the king on 1939.05.23 to restrict the immigration of Indian criminal tribes in to Ceylon.

Those days there were some tribes organized as gangs and engaged with criminal activities in India. They were commonly known as Thugs and were declared as criminal tribes by the laws in force in India at that time. By this ordinance the governor of Ceylon was empowered to declare such tribes as criminal tribes in Ceylon by notification.

The entry in to Ceylon of such tribes was prohibited without a permit. Provisions were made relating to the removal, arrest, penalties for abetting, and taking fingerprints of such persons by this ordinance. The chief secretary was empowered to make regulations pertaining to the restrictions.

This ordinance was in force until 1948 and it was repealed by the immigrants and emigrants act no 20 of 1948.

Immigration & emigration After independence

Immigrants and Emigrants Act No. 20 of 1948

After gaining Independence from British, the then Parliament promulgated the Immigrants and Emigrants Act No. 20 of 1948. It was assented on October 6, 1948 and came into effect on 1 November 1949.

In this Act, provisions was made, to control of entry and remain of non-Ceylonese, to regulate the departure from Ceylon the citizens, and persons other than the citizens of Ceylon ,&nbs; to&nbs;remove or deport&nbs; non-Ceylonese who have committed offences under the act or who are undesirables, to supervise the activities of non Ceylonese during their stay in Ceylon, and to organize the administrative set-up for the implementation of the above objectives and matters incidental thereto and connected therein. Regulations made under the Act were published in the Gazette no 10039 issued on 28 October 1949 Emigration of Indians from Ceylon ordinance, foreign recruiting ordinance, Indian criminal tribes' immigration ordinance, Destitute Immigrants Ordinance,

Emigration ordinance, Passport Ordinance, Aliens registration ordinance, & Ceylon emigrants' ordinance, were repealed by this law.

Immigrants and Emigrants Act No. 20 of 1948 has been amended at several occasions by the Amendment Acts no 16 of 1955, no 68 of 1961, no 16 of 1993, no 42 of 1998, and no 31 of

2006 and no. 07 of 2015 respectively.

Significant changes made by these amendments were as follows.

Provisions on permanent & temporary residents permits of main act were repealed and resident visa provisions were included instead of them by the Amendment Act no 16 of 1955.

The governor general was empowered to authorize any member of the forces to exercise and discharge powers and duties under the immigrants and emigrants act, by the Amendment Act no 68 of 1961.

 The aim of this amendment was to stop illicit immigrant entering into the country. The Authority prescribed to issue or renew passports were empowered to take finger printing for the inclusion in the passport, from a person applying for a passport or the renewal of a passport, by the Amendment Act no 07 of 2015

In 1972 Ceylon became a republic. The name of the country was changed as the democratic socialist republic of Sri Lanka. After that, immigrants and emigrants act has been amended thrice, in 1993, 1998, and 2006 respectively. All those occasions it was regard to restrict illicit emigrants from Sri Lanka as well as illicit immigrants remain in Sri Lanka.

In addition to that following related laws were enacted for specific purposes mentioned below.

Temporary Residence Tax Act no 15 of 1971 was enacted to; make provision for the levy and recovery of a tax computed with reference to the stay in Sri Lanka of certain persons who are not citizens of Sri Lanka.

Passport (regulations) and Exit Permit Act no 53 of 1971 was enacted to provide for regulation and control of the issue and renewal of passports; for the issue of exit permits to citizen of Sri Lanka; and to impose an obligation on citizens of Sri Lanka employed abroad to remit a part of their earnings in foreign exchange to Sri Lanka. Resident Guest (tax exemption) Act no 06 of 1979 was enacted to exempt certain categories of resident visa holders from certain taxes. Resident guests were granted with above exemption by this law.

Department of Immigration and Emigration

With the enactment of the immigration & emigration act, the necessity was aroused to establish a new department to implement the provisions of it. This new Department was established in October 1949 and started in Colombo Fort. The Assistant Secretary of the Ministry of Defense was transferred together with his staff to the newly formed Department. Police Department, which attended to the field duties, was requested to hand over of those functions to the newly formed Department. The implementation of the new law was postponed until 01st November 1949 till relief arrangements were made effected to those affected by the new Act. The practice of issuing British Passports to Citizens of Sri Lanka was stopped with effect from 01.11.1949.

The New Ceylon Passport came into use from then, and the holder had to be a Citizen of Ceylon.

History of Immigration & Emigration and Citizenship of Sri Lanka

Immigration & Emigration before Independence

To be the best immigration service in the region

During the period when Ceylon was a British colony, entry into and exit from Sri Lanka (then Ceylon) was controlled by the following ordinances:

- Emigration of Indians from Ceylon Ordinance no 3 of 1847
- Foreign Recruiting Ordinance no 01 of 1874
- Ceylon emigrants Ordinance no 04 of 1882
- Destitute Immigrants Ordinance no 12 of 1907
- Emigration Ordinance no 22 of 1917
- Passport Ordinance no 20 of 1923
- Aliens Registration Ordinance no 30 of 1935
- Indian Criminal Tribes Immigration Ordinance no 19 of 1939

Emigration of Indians from Ceylon Ordinance 1847 has been enacted to, prohibit natives of India from, entering into contracts in Ceylon, for labor to be performed in any British or foreign colony beyond the limits of India or Ceylon, and from emigrating, from Ceylon to any such colony, for the purpose of employment as laborers.

Foreign Recruiting Ordinance 1874 was enacted to, control recruiting in Ceylon, for the service of foreign states. BY this law, governor was authorized to, prohibit recruiting persons, for service of foreign states beyond the limits of Ceylon; or permit to do so subject to conditions.

Ceylon Emigrants Ordinance 1882 was enacted to; regulate the emigration of Ceylonese laborers from, Ceylon under contract of service. By this law, governor was empowered to, declare places where Ceylonese laborers were allowed to, emigrate. It was subject to the condition that such contracts should be signed before a magistrate.

Destitute Immigrants Ordinance 1907 was enacted to, restrict immigration into Ceylon of destitute, and vicious persons, and of stowaways. The main objective of this law was, preventing the entry of persons, who would be a liability to the Treasury. By this law a person other than a native of Ceylon or native of British India, who was unable, by reason of physical or mental infirmity, to maintain himself by his own labor, or is destitute, was not permitted to land. Entry of such a person was permitted only on a bond entered into by a local to the effect that he would repay to the financial secretary any cost and charges, may be incurred in respect of such destitute immigrant. The entry into Ceylon of any prostitute or any person living on the prostitution, too was prohibited by this law.

Emigration ordinance 1917 was enacted to regulate the emigration of persons from Ceylon for the purpose of employment in certain capacities outside the island. In this law emigrant was defined as a native person living in Ceylon and Indian emigrant was defined as a native person of India, other than a person who has obtained a pass under any law in force in British India regulating the issue of passes to Indian emigrants. Provision was made in this law to, both emigrants and Indian emigrants to obtain the consent of chief secretary in writing for embarkation. Only the persons who were over seventeen years of age were granted with consent. They were required to obtain a pass from the collector of customs and enter into a bond with the crown. Further they had to keep a deposit of three hundred rupees with the collector of customs. The persons who were emigrating for employment purposes had to sign a service contract with their employer, and it should have been attested by the controller of customs. In addition to that, there were several provisions, regards to the responsibilities of masters of ships, powers of police officers to search and arrest, and medical examinations at the port, and penalties.

Passport Ordinance 1923 was enacted to make provision to take power to require passports of persons entering or departing from Ceylon. The governor was granted with powers to make regulations requiring that persons entering or departing from Ceylon should be on possession of passports, and matters related to that purpose. Further, he was empowered, to exempt of any person or class of persons from any provision of such regulations. The regulations made under this law were effected up to October 28 of 1949, until the new immigration and emigration regulations make under the immigrants and emigrants act no 20 of 1948, came into effect.

Aliens' Registration Ordinance 1935 was enacted to make provision for the registration of aliens (a person other than a British subject or British protected person) in Ceylon. The registrar of aliens was appointed by the governor under the provision of this law. By this law, any alien who was intending to remain in the island for a period of one month or longer was ordered to furnish a return to the registrar. Further there was provision regards to the, restrictions of movements within the island, deportation of aliens, and verification of returns. So it was something similar to the visa requirements of present day.

Indian criminal tribes immigration ordinance no.19 of 1939

This ordinance was enacted by state council, and assented by his majesty the king on 1939.05.23 to restrict the immigration of Indian criminal tribes in to Ceylon. Those days there were some tribes organized as gangs and engaged with criminal activities in India. They were commonly known as Thugs and were declared as criminal tribes by the laws in force in India at that time. By this ordinance the governor of Ceylon was empowered to declare such tribes as criminal tribes in Ceylon by notification. The entry in to Ceylon of such tribes was prohibited without a permit. Provisions were made relating to the removal, arrest, penalties for abetting, and taking fingerprints of such persons by this ordinance. The chief secretary was empowered to make regulations pertaining to the restrictions.

This ordinance was in force until 1948 and it was repealed by the immigrants and emigrants act no 20 of 1948.

Immigration & emigration After independence

Immigrants and Emigrants Act No. 20 of 1948

After gaining Independence from British, the then Parliament promulgated the Immigrants and Emigrants Act No. 20 of 1948. It was assented on October 6, 1948 and came into effect on 1 November 1949. In this Act, provisions was made, to control of entry and remain of non-Ceylonese, to regulate the departure from Ceylon the citizens, and persons other than the citizens of Ceylon , to remove or deport non-Ceylonese who have committed offences under the act or who are undesirables, to supervise the activities of non Ceylonese during their stay in Ceylon, and to organize the administrative set-up for the implementation of the above objectives and matters incidental thereto and connected therein. Regulations made under the Act were published in the Gazette no 10039 issued on 28 October 1949

Emigration of Indians from Ceylon ordinance, foreign recruiting ordinance, Indian criminal tribes' immigration ordinance, Destitute Immigrants Ordinance, Emigration ordinance, Passport Ordinance, Aliens registration ordinance, & Ceylon emigrants' ordinance, were repealed by this law.

The screenshot shows the official website of the Department of Immigration and Emigration. The header features the logo and name of the department. Below the header, there are navigation links for HOME, ABOUT US, CITIZENSHIP, PASSPORTS, RTI, and CONTACT US. A sub-header titled "Overseas Birth Registration" is displayed. Under this, there are several sections: "To whom is this applicable?", "What will happen if I fail to register the birth of my child within one year?", and "What are the documents required to be handed over along with the completed application form?". The "Documents Required" section lists seven items, including birth certificates and travel documents. Another section, "Where can I obtain an Application Form?", provides three options: the Citizenship Division Head Office, Sri Lankan Missions, or the application form itself. The bottom of the page includes a "Child Information" form with fields for applicant's full name, address, email, and phone numbers. The status bar at the bottom indicates it's 9:52 PM on 2/2/2024.

This screenshot shows the continuation of the website's content. It includes a note: "3. Follow the application below." Below this, there is another "Child Information" form. This form includes fields for the child's full name, sex (radio buttons for Male and Female), date of birth (dropdown menus for Date, Month, and Year), and place of birth. A "Submit" button is located at the bottom of this form. A note at the bottom of the page states: "Citizenship Division of the Department of Immigration and Emigration will process the applications and mail the certificates to the respective Sri Lankan Mission for onward transmission to the applicant or to the applicant's Sri Lankan address." The status bar at the bottom indicates it's 9:53 PM on 2/2/2024.

The birth should be registered within a period of one year from the date of birth of the child. In the event of failure to do so, an extra fee shall be imposed for the delay.

When submitting the applications through the overseas Sri Lankan missions, all the documents should be attested by an authorized officer from the Mission and it should bear the signature and the rubber stamp of the attesting officer.

Acquiring Biometric Data into the Passport System</h4>

The Government of Sri Lanka has decided to obtain fingerprints as biometric data of applicants when issuing Passports with effect from 10th August 2015. Arrangements have also been made to obtain photographs of the applicants, conforming to standards of the International Civil Aviation Organization. By this arrangement, Sri Lankan Passport will become a travel document with international recognition.

Important information of new passports issuance procedure.

Submitting Application

The
Those application forms could be obtained from the Office of The Department, Regional Offices at Matara, Kandy, Vavuniya and Kurunegala. District Secretariats Offices, Divisional Secretariats Offices or from the website www.immigration.gov.lk.
As the fingerprints have to be captured, all applicants have to come in person to the Head Office of the Department or Regional Offices to submit their applications.

Photograph conforming to international standards

The Department will not accept printed photographs. All applicants should obtain their photographs only from studios authorized by the Department located island-wide or from studios established at the Head Office and Regional Offices of the Department.

The relevant studios will not give a printed photograph and your photograph will be forwarded to the data system of the Department through online technology.

The studio will issue you a acknowledgement note which should be submitted along with your application.

The list of authorized studios will be published in the newspapers and on our website www.immigration.gov.lk and will also be exhibited at District Secretariat Offices and Divisional Secretariat Offices.

Fingerprints

According to the provisions of the Immigration and Emigration Act No. 20 of 1948 amended by Act No. 7 of 2015 every applicant above 16 years of age and below 60 years of age must provide his or her fingerprints. Fingerprints will be obtained only at the Head Office and Regional Offices.

Important

Children below 16 years of age will hereafter not be included in the Passports of their parents and separate passports must be obtained for them.

More information: Hotline 1962 or telephone numbers +94 112 101 500

Special Note

New regulation imposed by the Finland Government for Sri Lankan Visa Applicants

Applicants who wish to apply visa for Finland shall take the following facts in to consideration, too.

The Embassy of Finland is no longer allowed to approve Sri Lankan Passports where there are alterations of the name on the second page as per the new procedure introduced by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Finland.

The Mission is not authorized to accept the applications If there are any name alterations in the visa or resident permit applicants' passports and such applicants should submit a new passport with the correct name.

The approval will be given for the passports that the name is written on the second page due to the reason that the name is too long to be written on the first page of the passport.

The screenshot shows a web browser window for the 'contact_us.html' page of the Department of Immigration and Emigration. The header features the department's logo and name. A navigation bar includes links for HOME, ABOUT US, CITIZENSHIP, PASSPORTS, RTI, and CONTACT US. Below the navigation is a 'Location' section with a map of Battaramulla. The map highlights the 'Department of Immigration &...' office, its 'Passport Office 1gate', 'Passport Office One Day Service Section', and 'Registration of Persons' unit. Other nearby landmarks like the 'Ministry of Law & Order', 'Registrar General's Department', 'Post Office Battaramulla', and 'Mobitel Kiosk' are also marked. To the left, a sidebar shows a Google search result for the department's address. The main content area contains 'Contact Details' for the Department of Immigration and Emigration, including its address at 'Suhurupaya', Sri Subhuthipura Road, Battaramulla, and contact numbers (Hotline: 1962, Phone: +94 112 101 500, Fax: +94 11 2885358), email (controller@immigration.gov.lk), and website (www.immigration.gov.lk). The bottom of the screen shows a Windows taskbar with various application icons and the date/time (10:04 PM, 2/2/2024).

This screenshot shows the same 'contact_us.html' page with additional staff profiles. It features portraits and contact information for the 'Additional Controller General' (Mr. I. S. H. J. Ilukpitiya) and the 'Information Officer (Right to Information Act)' (Ms. K. M. S. M. Chathurangi - Deputy Controller (Legal)). Below these profiles, their respective telephone and fax numbers, and email addresses are listed. The footer includes a 'Have A Question' section with links to 'HOME' and 'ABOUT US', an 'Information' section with the department's address, and a 'Visit Us' section with a map and contact details. The bottom of the screen shows a Windows taskbar with various application icons and the date/time (10:05 PM, 2/2/2024).
